The Edwin H. Mookini Library provides various services to students, faculty, and staff of the University of Hawaii System involved in distance learning.

Where is the library? The University of Hawaii Hilo campus is located at 200 W. Kawili St. across from Waiakea High School in Hilo. Mookini Library provides support services for both UH Hilo and Hawaii Community College. It is located next to the UH Hilo Campus Center, close to the UH Hilo Theater/Auditorium. Visitors to the Library can find parking in front of the Campus Center. Please see the campus map and library map for more information.

When is the library open? Library hours include Saturdays, Sundays, and most evenings during the regular semester.

What resources are available? Numerous electronic and print resources are available including Hawaii Voyager (UH system catalog for books, audiovisual materials, and government documents) and periodical indexes like the ERIC/Host databases, JSTOR, and ProQuest. A complete list of indexes by subject area is available also.

Distance Learners in Hilo:
All University of Hawaii faculty, staff, and students may use the Library’s PCs located on the Main Level.
