

1 Circulation Desk

Check-out materials; register ID for off-campus access to resources; get course reserves, closed shelves, and multimedia materials; reserve a Group Study Room; send faxes; and much more.

2 Reference Desk

Ask questions, get research assistance.

3 Recreational Reading

New Books, Faculty Favorites, Newspapers, Paperbacks and new, casual furniture for relaxing.

4 Reference Collection

The place to start research: dictionaries, encyclopedias, almanacs, atlases, statistical sources, bibliographies on all subjects. These books are for use only in the Library, so they're always available.

5 DVDs

One of the most popular collections - classics, current hits, documentaries, and more.

6 Current Periodicals

Browse the newest issues of hundreds of magazines and journals on all subjects. Now with a larger seating area.

7 Library Classroom

Where librarians teach research techniques and information literacy.

8 Computer Lab

Largest collection of computers on campus. The library's computers include scanning stations and Macs. The English Department's Writing Center is in here (Rm. 239).

9 General Book Collection

Books that can be checked-out. Books with call numbers beginning with A - G are here, H - Z are downstairs.

10 Hawaiian Collection

Materials related to Hawai'i and the Pacific, including books, journals, maps, reprints, and more, along with reference assistance.

MAIN LEVEL
2nd floor

Periodical Backfiles

Back issues of print journals, alphabetical by title.

Government Documents

Federal government documents including Congressional hearings, departmental publications, maps, periodicals, labor statistics, U.S. Census information, and more.

Maps

U. S. and World maps - most can be borrowed. Hawai'i maps are in the Hawaiian Collection on the Main Level.

